

CPTED: CREATING SAFE PLACES

2-Day Multi-Disciplinary Introductory Course
February 15-16, 2010 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Fremont Police Department
2000 Stevenson Blvd
Fremont, CA 94538

$125 includes workbook

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Designers
Planners
Architects

Code Enforcement
Security Park Rangers
Law Enforcement

Neighborhood Preservation
Property Managers
Landscape and Maintenance

WHAT IS COVERED:

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) is a crime prevention philosophy stating that effective use of the built environment leads to reductions in crime and improvements in quality of life. Students will gain practical skills in the areas of:

Target Hardening
Fear & Isolation
Defensible Space

Land Use
Lighting
Activity Support

CPTED Strategies
Problem Solving
Practical Applications

TO REGISTER:

Call 925-672-5179
or email CPTED@jssinc.org

JSS helps organizations move forward with strategic thinking, rigorous research, appropriate training and technology and funding development. Our clients include law enforcement, homeland security, health care, and social and public services. Visit www.jssinc.org